

Credit Union 1

Corporate Contribution Guidelines

1941 Abbott Road
Anchorage, AK 99507
Phone: (907) 339-9485
Toll Free: (800) 478-2222
www.cu1.org

Credit Union 1 (CU1) is committed to improving the lives of our members by supporting the communities in which they live and work. We've embraced the true credit union spirit of "people helping people" since our inception and continue to be committed to this philosophy.

NOTE: If this request is solely for CU1 volunteers, please contact Jessie Lavoie, Community Engagement Specialist at oneforallalaska@cu1.org or (907) 339-8396.

Guidelines:

Credit Union 1 is unable to support requests for the following:

- Individuals
- Sport teams
- Religious activities or organizations
- Political activities or organizations
- Organizations outside of Alaska
- General operating funds
- Scholarship funds (CU1 provides scholarships through the Bill Countryman Scholarship Program each spring)

CREDIT UNION 1 FUNDING FOCUS AREAS:

YOUTH AND EDUCATION

CU1 supports organizations serving youth and providing education to youth, ensuring they are provided the foundation needed to become successful members of our community. Special consideration will be given to programs teaching youth financial responsibility.

HEALTH

CU1 supports organizations improving the health of members of our community by providing support to those who are affected by disease or disability and by encouraging individuals to seek tools to remain healthy through prevention and education.

SOCIAL SERVICES

CU1 supports organizations improving the social wellbeing of disadvantaged members of our community through providing basic needs (i.e. food, shelter, etc) and opportunities to restore their ability to be successful members of society.

Any organization in Alaska meeting the funding focus outlined above are encouraged to apply, however, priority will be given to organizations serving communities in Alaska where Credit Union 1 has a presence (Anchorage, Fairbanks, Kodiak, Ketchikan, Nome and Soldotna.)